A HANDSOME CRAFT.

Captain A. H. Paul, master of the new clipper barkentine Irmgard, showed several gentlemen, interested in the progress of marine architecture, through his vessel today. Among the party were Mr. F.
 A. Schaefer, the agent of the vessel, Messrs. H. F. Glade, F. M. Swany, and the captains of the merchant vessels in port. Captain Paul took his guests round his new craft, explaining its different departments, and its merits and improvements over other vessels built by the Hall Brothers.

The finishing touches and furniture of the cabin are not yet complete, and Captain Paul expects to have the more ornamental and costly fixtures of the cabin done at San Francisco. His party, however, were satisfied with the present appearance of the vessel, which is pronounced by experts at Port Blakely to be the "Hall Brothers' crowning effort."

LA GRIPPE.

"Maiden, with that saddened air, With that aspect of despair,
 With that wild, disheveled hair Which you fiercely seek to tear—Let me urge you to forbear; Tell me what your troubles are."
 Thus she spoke with quivering lip, "Stranger, I have got la grippe!" Housewife—"We haven't any cold vitals, nor—" Tramp—"Cold vitals? Who asked you for cold vitals? I want broiled steak and fried eggs and hot flannel cakes and coffee. Cold vitals? The idea!"
 Housewife—"Walk in, please.
 My daughter will play for you while I'm getting them ready."—[Philadelphia Inquirer.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

There are eight events on the list for this evening.

The Y. M. C. A. failed of a quorum for its monthly meeting due last night.

Dr. Brodie in a card announces his resumption of practice—office, 81 Beretania street.

COMPLAINTS are rife again about the protrusion of tramway rails above the ruts worn in Queen street.

 opera "Minamoto" will be played by the band to-night at the Hotel.

A BROTHER of Editor Dana, the veteran head of the New York Sun, is staying at the Hamilton House.

 much improved this morning that he intended to go out of hospital for a walk.

That picture elsewhere represents Nellie Bly wiping her feet on the Hartman steel wire mat after passing the winning post.

A BAND concert followed by a hop will be given at the Hotel this evening, in celebration of the eve of Washington's birthday.

A FLASH of lightning quickly followed by a loud peal of thunder occurred in the midst of a series of showers yesterday evening.

 day will be celebrated by a Blue Ribbon entertainment in the Y. M.
 C. A. hall. See programme elsewhere.

 Hutchinson the sculptor at the Y.
 M. C. A. hall this evening. He will model a portrait bust of someone in the audience. Tickets $1 at King

THERE was no quorum at the Fire Department Board last night. Several of the most regular veterans telephoned in that the grip had them.
 The meeting was adjourned by Chief Wilson to the next regular night.

A MEETING of the Mechanics and Workmen's Political Protective Union is called by the secretary at K. of P. hall this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all who are in sympathy with the aims of the Association.

Is the show window of the Pacific Hardware Co.'s emporium appears on exhibition a large engraving representing the "Charge of the Light Brigade." As if to throw light on what they charge for and the amount of the charge, a placard above bears the legend, "Buhaeh 75c per pound."

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh has called a meeting of the ladies of Honolulu, at Y. M. C. A. 4 o'clock this afternoon, to organize for the systematic supplying of flowers to the sick wards of Queen's Hospital. Flower missions do a great deal of good in other cities, and this city of flowers ought to maintain a vigorous one.

R. F. WESMANN, committed by Judge Richardson of Wailuku to the June term of Court on a charge of perjury in the second degree, was this morning released on bail. He is alleged to have sworn falsely to a statement showing his income for the year preceding the election in an attempt to register as a voter for November.

"SPEAKING of free ice," said skipper Jackson exhorting with great precision on a copy of the Advertiser.
 "I saw a six-inch chunk of Union ice left in front of a store on Fort street. The firm was so hide-bound it wouldn't lug the piece in. So it lay all day exposed to the vertical sweltering rays of a torrid sun. But do you think the blasted ice shrank or melted? Not a bit of it. It swelled up to eight inches before night. During the night some rain fell and the ice used that to swell on.
 This morning it was removed for obstructing traffic. Why I tell you—The reporter fell in holy horror."

THE HAMILTON HOUSE.

The Hamilton House, conducted by Hamilton Johnson, is almost full of boarders. On taking the place, formerly the Dodoit House, Mr.
 Johnson had it renovated and refurnished throughout, and fitted with thirty-eight incandescent electric lights from the Government system. The bedrooms are large, airy, opening on wide verandas, and furnished with old oak sets, the beds being peculiarly fitted to woo "nature's sweet restorer." The cuisine is conducted on the principle of giving a choice home table. Not only is the best staple diet, cooked in the varied styles one would relish at home, served, but the market is ransacked for seasonable delicacies. Yesterday evening the writer dropped in on the host and was regaled with real turtle soup as the starter of a substantial dinner the deserts comprising a variety of the finest California and Hawaiian fresh fruits.
 Even choice grapes are not considered too good for the Hamilton household's board. Many of the present complement of the house are visitors from abroad, who find there besides good fare the comforts of a quiet domestic circle. The proprietor has made great improvements in the spacious grounds surrounding the house. His residence hotel, Waikiki Villa, has continued to be well patronized since the close of the out-of-town season, which speaks well for the management of it by Mrs. Johnson.

FOREIGN EXCERPTS.

Sister Mary Gertrude tiring of old Paster in France seeks new pastures in Hawaii.

Diplomatic negotiations looking to a satisfactory adjustment of the differences existing between the United States and Australia are being conducted with rare skill by the far-reaching statesmen John L. Sullivan and Peter Jackson. John L.'s compromise of $15,000 will probably be accepted. The arguments will abound in telling hits, grasping efforts, and knockdown conclusions.

Mr. Perkins of San Francisco, who married a nun, now asserts there are none such.

A musical Reed playing on through Democratic rests is an object of considerable note and the occasion of great discord in Washington at present. All the Republican organs are in harmony with his rendering and are warm in praise of his interpretation and phrasing.

When Parnell commenced the agitation of Home Rule times were bad.
 Now he has recovered £5000. Times is better, and yet it is said the Times is worse for the result of the suit which it fit to a close.

Nellie Bly winked her eye and reached her native strand, Four days or so by actual try Ahead of Miss Island.

HAWAIIAN MINISTER AT WASH-INGTON.

The Minister of Hawaii has tendered his resignation to the Hawaiian King. It has not been accepted.
 On the contrary, Mr. Carter has been requested to remain until September at least. But that means, if he stays until September, a stay of another year. This he is very reluctant to do. He has large business interests in Hawaii, a beautiful home, and there are many inducements to return to private life, as well as to a climate that is nearly perfection. Mr. Carter came to Washington seven years ago as the successor of Mr. Allen, who, it will be remembered, died in the White House on New Year's day, during President Arthur's reception. Hawaii has been very fortunate in the selection of her ministers to our government. Mr. Allen and his beautiful daughter were greatly esteemed. The Carters are among the very popular families in official circles. They are not of the ultra-fashionable and gay people, but their house is a charming home, having the atmosphere of culture and well-read women. The Hawaiian minister has three daughters.
 Two of them are in society, and they are among the good talkers. The Prestons, who have recently given way to the new minister from Hayti, have also three daughters. They are another family whose absence will be felt.—[Springfield Republican.

Floor Walker—"Any one waiting on you, miss?"

Miss—"Yes, sir; Mr. Huggins of the ribbon department. We're to be married next month."

"You ask for the hand of my daughter? What expectations have you?"

"Why—none at all."

"Neither has my daughter. Take her and be happy."—[Fliegende Blatter.

Differently Viewed—Miss Jhubb (Boston)—"Do you think that Emersonian philosophy specifically applied has any material effect upon the terrestrial inconsistencies that clog and warp the esthetic development of our inner being?"

Miss Foote (of Chicago)—"I never gave the subject much thought. Mamma always used fax-seed."—[Philadelphia Inquirer.

Ah, what is fame? A gilded prize For which we spread the net;
 A something they alone despise Who can't let its honors get—The glory won by pen or sword, The fruit of earnest wills,
 The guerdon of Beethoven's chord, Or some compounder's pills.

Don't be too ready to admit Whatever is right and fit; For all the good the gods provide Comes only after men have tried.

NOW that the rainy season is upon us, everybody wants a door mat that will be an ornament at the front door, and will thoroughly do the work required of it. The Hartman Steel Wire Mat!

Is just the thing. It cannot become soaked by rain, as is the case with fiber mats, and it always keeps clean. Being made of Galvanized Wire more durable than fiber or rubber. Can

California: Lands

FOR SALE!

THE undersigned wishes to inform the public that he has opened a Branch California Land Office, at No.
 42 Merchant street, Honolulu.

To persons wishing to invest in Choice Timber, Agriculture, Fruit or Grazing Lands in the State of California, or in Desirable Building Lots in the beautiful City and Suburbs of Oakland, with its unrivaled climate and opportunities, I am prepared to offer every inducement in the way of bargains.

The Lands which I here offer have all been most carefully inspected by a thoroughly reliable surveyor, employed specially for that purpose, and I am therefore enabled to give satisfactory guarantee that every piece offered will strictly correspond with the description given by me.

The Titles to these Lands are perfect, being in the main state school lands.

The previous personal inspection thereof at great expense, offers absolute security to purchasers and is an inducement offered by no other dealer in state school lands in California.

The prices range from $3.50 per acre upward according to quality and location, and there is no doubt, by taking into account the rapid growth and progression of that State, that these lands offered at these low figures must within a few years command a much higher price and so secure to every investor a profit not easily equalled in any other line of speculation.

This opportunity will be open for a limited time only, and I therefore extend an invitation to all who wish to secure good and cheap homes in that magnificent State and Country, and also to those who desire to invest a little money to so great advantage and profit, to call upon me soon and obtain full particulars.

Information will be cheerfully given.
